

In harmony with Others

... A fundamental social group of society typically consisting of one or two parents and their children...

...Two or more people who share goals and values, have long-term commitments to one another and reside usually in the same dwelling....

Family (members)

female	male
Mother, mom, mummy	Father, dad, daddy
sister	brother
daughter	son
Aunt, aunty	uncle
niece	nephew
wife	husband
Grandmother, granny Cousin, siblings, twins,	Grandfather, grandad relatives

Form as many derivatives as possible with the help of the functional words (word building)

Grand	Grandmother, grandfather, granddaughter, grandson, grandpa, grandma, granddad
Great-grand	Great-grandmother, Great-grandfather, Great-granddaughter, Great-grandson,
Step	Stepmother, stepfather, stepdaughter, stepson
In-law	Mother-in-law, father-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law
Ex	Ex-wife, ex-husband

Types of family

1. A nuclear family

2. An extended family

3. A family with many children

4. A single parent family

5. A multicultural family

6. A blended family

Listen to the text and say if the facts are true, false or not stated

1. Modern families have different problems

2. Too much is expected from modern parents

3. In modern families there is more strain and pressure than love

4. People never tried to change a traditional family

5. Conflicts between parents and their children are often understood as a generation gap

6. Many young people these days try to avoid having families

7. The family will exist forever and ever

Make up lists of qualities which you think most important to be:

A good parent...	A good child...
Can also give you advice	Is ready to compromise
Is an expert in everything	Is loving and caring
Always helps you when you are in trouble	Finds time to spend with parents
Can turn daily routine into a holiday	Gives help and support to parents

Use the derivatives of the words on the right to complete the texts

A. In our families we sometimes ask for advice and want to be listened to. So (1)... is often the key to a (2)... connection between parents and their sons and daughters, brothers and sisters. (3)...s advise to listen to each other (4)... and to remember the points of view can be (5)...

listen
health
science careful differ

B. If you (1)... with what you hear, it is (2)... to remember that one should express his/her point of view without saying (3)... things.

It's better to (4)... strong reactions trying not to find who is right. It is much wiser to speak in such a way that your opponent will hear you and establish (5)... with each other.

agree
use
hurt
soft connect

Answer the questions, share your opinions

- 1. Why do people say that a happy childhood is important for them?
- 2. What is the best age for getting married?
- 3. How many children should a family ideally have?
- 4. Is it important for you to be formally married or would you prefer just to live together with your partner?
- 5. Why are there so many divorces nowadays?
- 6. Should children's parents stay together even if they are unhappy?
- 7. What is the most difficult thing in family life?
- 8. What can help to bridge the generation gap between parents and children?

A happy family from the point of view of:

Parents:	Children:

Sharing

Caring

Tolerance

Love

Commitment

Responsibility

Respect

Understanding

□ Home-task:

Prepare a computer presentation on the topic “In Harmony with Others”. You may consider these golden rules:

I try to treat others the way I want to be treated myself

I can't imagine my life without my parents, family and friends

Let us watch a piece of video. It is about parent's love to children.

What this situation makes you think about?

What does it teach us to do and to be?

STATUS
HOLDING

ADVERTISING AGENCY

www.status.com

What this situation makes you think about?

What does it teach us to do and to be?

A happy family